They Destroy Fort Infanta Isabella on the Trocha.

WALLS WRECKED BY DYNAMITE

A Hand-to-Hand Fight With the Garrison and Out of Two Hundred Spaniards but Seventy-Five Escape - The Three Friends Again Seized - American Newspaper Correspondent Arrested.

KEY WEST, Feb. 8.-A report from Pinar del Rio states that Fort Infanta Isabella, near the northern end of the trocha, was attacked and destroyed Thursday. The Cuban's crept close to the walls of the fort during the night and planted large mines of dynamite nnder them. Before daybreak they exploded them, earrying down the entire side of the fort, which was of stone. A number of the garrison were killed by the explosion.

The Chbans then attacked the breach, and, despite the efforts of Major Andreas, commanding, entered the fort. Here a hand-to-hand fight ensued, and the carnage was frightful. Heads were split open, and men elnbbed to death. The Cubans did not spare one, and the Spaniards dared not surrender, as they knew that their past record in that section would be against them. At last the flag was hanled down, amid the enthusiastic cheers of the Cubans. Out of the garrison of 200 Spaniards but 75

It is stated that fully 75 Cubans were killed or wounded, the fight being one of the most bloody ever fought there with so few men engaged. The fort was destroyed, and the Cubans retreated to the camp of Rivera, taking three small cannon with them and a good supply of small arms and ammunition. It is further stated that the Spanish colonel in command of the fort was away that night, and that he has been arrested and sentenced to be shot.

A large Spanish column was defeated by the Cubans west of Santa Clara one day last week, the details of which have been kept quiet in Havana, though the fact has just leaked out. The Cubans were besieging a fort there, and aid was sent for. A large Spanish detachment of some 400 men, nnder Major Setunda, was sent from a nearby encampment to drive the insurgents off. As they advanced near the town Garcia's men arranged a conning ambush, in a thick swamp, mining the road bed and planting a cannon where a turn of the road gave them full rake.

When the mine was sprung the surprise was complete. The Spaniards at-tempted to rally, but the Cubans opened using chain, bolts and iron pins for Their musketry fire was rapid and effective. The Spanish commander hurried to the front and endeavored to make his men stand. He was wounded, and his fall dispirited the men. The next in command soon after was hit, and then the fight became a running rout. The Cubans pursued them flerce ly, and many fell under their avenging

After they had escaped the Cubans secured several carloads of guns and from the fallen soldiers much ammunition. Over 150 Spaniards were killed and wounded, it is stated. The Cubans lost 30 men, the Spaniards firing but little after the surprise.

General Weyler Expects to End the Revolution at Once.

HAVANA, Feb. 8.—During the course of the recent remarks of Captain General Weyler at Villa Clara, the Spanish commander said that he expected to put an end to the revolution in the province of Santa Clara in the near fnture.

Many skirmishes are reported in the rovinces of Pinar del Rio, Havana and Matanzas. In one instance recently the troops attacked the insurgents' camp, destroyed 250 huts, captured the Cuban flag and secured a large quantity of arms and ammunition. The insurgents left 28 dead on the field, as usual carrying their wounded with them. Five of the Spaniards were killed and 19 wounded.

Colonel Feijoo, while reconnitering recently, met the Cubans at Ojo de Agua. The Spaniards had been ordered out for the purpose of assisting 25 men who were engaged in the work of gathiering vegetables, when they were attacked by 150 insurgents. The Spanish column returned the fire of the Cubans, killing at least 12 of them.

SUNDAY AT CANTON.

The Usual Quiet Day Prevailed at the Mc-Kinley Home.

CANTON, O., Feb. 8.—The usual Snnday quiet prevailed at the McKinley home yesterday. The major went to ehurch, accompanied by National Committeeman Charles G. Dawes, Congressman Francis H. Wilson of Brooklyn, White House Executive Clerk Pruden and several other friends. Rev. William MeAfee of Columbus, occupied the pulpit, having exchanged with Dr. Manchester, the regular pastor. Rev. Me-Afee was pastor of the Columbus church while Major McKinley was governor and they became close friends.

After the services Mr. Dawes, Rev. MeAfee and several local friends dined with the McKinleys, the major and the minister later in the day going to the home of Mother McKinley for a visit. Congressman Wilson had a half hour's talk with the major before leaving for the east. He said that his mission was not of national importance. Mr. Pruden also had a short talk with

Mr. Dawes returned to Chicago yesterday evening, going via Cleveland to have a talk between trains with National Chairman Hanna.

PENSION OFFICE MOVE

Number of Agencies Reduced Just One-Half.

EIGHTEEN FROM TO NINE.

Hereafter There Will Be Agencies at Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Columbus, Indianapolis, Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco-A Saving to the Government of $150,000 Yearly.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The president has signed, on the recommendation of Secretary of the Interior Francis, an important order reducing the number of pension agencies in the United States from 18 to nine. The object of the order is to effect a very large saving to the government without inconveniencing the pensioners. The secretary demonstrates that by this reduction of the pension agencies the cost of disbursion pensions can be reduced by at least $150,000 per anunm.

The change was made possible by an amendment to the law governing the disbursing of pensions, which amendment was approved March 23, 1896. It required that all pensioners should, after that date, be paid by checks remitted by mail. Reports from the pension agencies in reply to inquiries as to the operation of the new law were to the effect that under it the pensioners are paid much more promptly; that the possibility of error is minimized, and that upon the whole it is much more satisfactory to the pensioners than the former law. The agents also advise that the pensioners receive their pensions when remitted by mail at their homes, where being surrounded by family influences the pensioner is much more likely to make a judicious disposition of his pension money. Under the previous law the pensioners collected their quarterly payments in person, and, under the influence of bad associations, were often induced to apply those pay ments nuwisely and deprive their families of the benefits thereof.

This executive order will go into effect Sept. 1 next, its execution having been postponed until that date in order that no pensioner should suffer inconvenience in consequence of delay in re-ceiving his pension, and to give ample time for the removal of the rolls and records from the agencies discontinued.

The consolidation was made by uniting existing agencies and the entire jurisdiction thereof in order that no expense should be incurred by the making of new rolls. The agencies at Concord, N. H., and Augusta, Me., are discontinued and payments hitherto made there are ordered made from the agency at oston: the pensioners heretofore paid at Buffalo are to be paid from New York city agency; those at Pittsbnrg from the Philadelphia agency; those at Lonisville and Knoxville from Washington; those at Detroit from Indianapolis; those at Milwankee from Chieago; those at Des Moines and Topeka from St. Louis, where a new agency is established.

A new agency is established at St. Louis because of the better mail facilities than at Des Moines or Topeka, and for the further reasons that there is a government building at St. Louis which can be occupied without cost to the government, and there is also a subtreasnry there. A pension agency was removed from St. Louis to Topeka in 1882. There are more pensioners now in Missonri than in Kansas or in any state formerly paid by the Topeka or the Des Moines agency. There are in Missouri 53,812 pensioners, in Kansas, 42,433; in Iowa,

The following are the nine agencies and the number of pensioners paid thereat under the new order: Boston, 94,357; New York, 98,833; Philadelphia, 106,735; Washington, 140,265; Columbus, 104,492; Indianapolis, 116,036; Chicago, 125,123; San Francisco, 23,-

Total, 970,678. All pensioners of the United States residing in foreign countries and now numbering 3,781, will continue to be paid from the Washington agency, and the navy pensioners will be paid as heretofore from Boston, Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, San Francisco and Washington.

The estimated saving to the government is as follows: Clerk hire, $105,675; salaries, nine agents, $4,000 per anunm, $36,000; contingent expenses of agencies discontinued, $10,182; rent for agencies discontinued, $9,550. Total, $161,407.

The estimated saving in clerk hire is based upon the cost of that item at the two largest agencies in the service, namely, Columbus and Topeka. From those agencies the pensioners are paid at annual cost of 35 cents per capita for clerk hire. After the consolidation the cost for clerk hire will amount, at 35 cents per capita, to $339,737, while that item for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1896, amounted to $445,412. Secretary Francis does not think any valid objection can be offered to this ehange, and believes that the saving will be even greater than estimated Under the new law the agents report each quarterly payment as under the old law. . This saving ean be effected without any inconvenience to the pensioners, and will rednee the annual expenses of the government to just that extent and may tend to allay in some degree the opposition that has been manifested hitherto to the great pension disbursements of the government. The total cost for pensions and the disbursement thereof for the fiscal year

760; cost or maintaining pension agen-eies, $565,027. It is on this last item that the new order is intended to save between $150,000 and $160,000 per

PROGRAM OF BOTH HOUSES

The Nicaraguan Canal Hill Will lie Abaudoned in the Senate and Appropriation Bills Taken Up-Appropriation life Will Re Considerel in the House Counting of the Electoral Votes.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.-If Senator Morgan pursues his present plan he will move to take up the Niearagua canal bill as soon as the routine business in the senate is disposed of. He expects the motion to be antagonized, and in that event will secure a vote which will, he thinks, demonstrate the voting strength of the canal bill. He expects the vote to be largely in the majority, bnt whatever the result, he probably will announce his abandonment of the bill for the present session on account of the determined obstruction to its passage, while at the same time he will declare his purpose to press the measure with more determination than ever at the next session.

The withdrawal of the Nicaragua canal bill from its present place at the head of the calender will leave the way open for taking up other measures pressing for consideration. The diplomatic and consular appropriation bill has already been reported, and there will be an effort to secure attention to it early in the week. The appropriation committee expect to have the Indian and agricultural bills reported by Wednesday and will ask for early consideration. Senator Thurston will seek the first opportunity to conclude his speech on the Pacific railroad resolutions; Senator Morrill has given notice of his intention to advance his bill to prohibit the sale of liquor in the Capitol, and Senator Sherman will abide by his decision to ask the senate to go into executive session early Monday for the purpose of considering the general arbitration treaty with Great Britain.

As soon as these matters will permit there will be an effort to proceed with the bankrnptcy bill, and it is not expected that there will be any avowed opposition to consideration.

The proceedings relative to the arbitration treaty will be held in executive session and will be long and animated. Wednesday the senate will join with the house to see the count of the electoral vote.

Senator Lodge hopes to get up the conference report on the immigration bill as soon as the honse aets npon it, which he thinks will be done the part of the present week.

Program of the House.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The feature of the week in the house will be ceremonies on Wednesday on the occasion of the counting of the electoral vote and the formal promulgation of the election of McKinley and Hobart by the vice president of the United States. It is a state occasion, but of a very formal character.

Unless the fortifications or sundry civil bill is reported the house will have no appropriation bill to consider this week and most of the time will be devoted to such bills as the various committees may present and the conference reports. There are three contested election cases, Beattie vs. Price, from Louisiana; Hopkins vs. Kendrick, from Kentacky, and Bennoit vs. Boatner, from Lonisiana, which probably will be decided. In each case the majority report departments on both day and night favors the sitting member, a Democrat, thrns. The Westinghouse machine and little time will be consumed in disposing of them.

"It must come in some such way, however. The promised era of prosperity is sadly absent. I do not think it will result from a revision of the tariff to any great extent. The idea of high protection, I very bad. Under the McKinley bill, as it existed, there was a system of partnership between the manufacturers and the Government, by which great revenues were derived by extortionato taxation of the masses. I believe in protection when it will directly improve the condition of the workingman, but I do not approve of what is popularly known as the protective system, which simply robs the people in general for the benefit of comparatively a few manufacturers. I sincerely hope that the new tariff law to be enacted will not be similar to the old McKinley bill."

If Mr. Butterworth believed in bimetallism it's hard to see how he could do as ho did last fall.

In ail the low grades, excepting only the very meanest kinds, there is a marked advance. It is evident that the manufacturers want the goods and we would say to our friends give them the tohacco while they want it. We think there is also an improvement in our market for new stock, particularly for goods of any merit at aii, hut a largo proportion of the of ferings continues to be very indifferent in quaiity, and hence the average price is greatly cut down. A shipment of about fifty hogsheads is of West Virginia tohacco was received at the Giohe Warehouse this week, and while the quailty was not quite up to the standard of this State, the desire to purchase these goods caused a strong competition and extra prices were realized. The shipmeuts from several of the southern counties to the Cincinnati market speak weil for her future, and our havers will remain at home to make their purchases and will take aif these shipments at the highest prices, as they are partial to these tohaccos and want to establish a market to induce the shipments direct to Cincinnati. Receipts were not heavy during the week and the stocks in warehouses are decreasing. In fact, there is much less to hacco held by shippers than thero was at the same time last year, and this fact doubtiess contributes to the betterment of feeling. But few country purchases have as yet ings are mostly of growers' packing. We expect a continued activity and believe that while there will probably he no hoom, a good steady market may he looked for.

Joe Cavan, who has had a whirlwind experience in the south and west, said to the crowd in the same old place, the up town hotel:

"My advice to you all is, be natural. Do not try to deceive people with your affected talk or in your clothes. You will be certain to show the cloven foot somewhere. I was at a dinner onco in St. Lonis. It was given by Governor Marmaduke. Before we had given our orders, for at a western dinner every man has the privilege of saying what he wants, the governor asked each one of his guests where he hailed from. One was from Tennessee, one from Illinois, one from California. The east was not represented, so I handed in my card from Vermont. Just then the waiter passed the bill of fare, and, my ruling passion asserting itself, 'Poke and beans,' said I in my natural voice. "'Cavan,' said the governor of Missouri vehemently, 'you're from Georgy. No man from Vermont ever said 'poke and beaus,' and your scheme of passing for a Yankee, suh, is reprehensible and will cost you the wine.'

STATE TAXES

Must be Paid by Express Companies-Important Decision of the Supreme Court.

Washington, February 1 .- The Supreme Court to-day affirmed the lower courts of Ohlo and Indiana on the franchise tax cases appealed by the Adams Express Company. The court finds that the States have power to enforce the tax in controversy and thus defeats the corporations. No opinion was fited in the Kentucky express case or the Henderson bridge case, but the former is identical with those from Ohio and Indiana. It is contended that the Henderson case presents a slightly different question.

Under the State law, which was assailed by the express companies, these companies are taxed in three forms: First, on their real estate; second, upon their gross receipts on business done within the State, and thirdly, additionally assessed by the State Board. It was the last assessment to which the companies took exceptions. For the three years involved, the State Board the rails fell upon him, crushing him to had increased the valuation of property in assessments under this law from $289,862 to $449,702. This increased valuation was arrived at by taking the market value of the entire capital stock of the express companies as a basis for arriving at the true value in money of the company's property in Ohio. The Chief Justice did not make the opinion public, merely announcing that the decision of the court below had been af-

The two cases involve the validity of the State law of 1893 for the taxation of telegraph, telephone, palace car, sleeping car, dining car, express and fast freight companies, which empowers the State Board of Tax Commissioners to assess taxation other than that of a local character. This law imposes a penalty of 50 per cent, upon those who do not pay their taxes within the time specified. Justices Harlan and White dissented.

DRAWING.

Practically It is the Universal Language of industry-Its Importance as a Study.

Drawing is a nniversal language. The public at large does not realize its omnipresence in every day affairs. The clothes a man puts on in the morning were made from drawings or patterns. The keys and small coins in his pockets were made from drawings. The chair in which he sits eating his breakfast was made according to drawings; so were the carpets and wall paper, the table and objects upon it. The stove on which his breakfast was prepared, the system of water pipes that brings him his drinking water, the stair case he descends to get to the street, the railroad station, the car on which he rides down town, the illustrations in the newspapers which he reads on the way, and the printing presses which duplicate them, all involved skillful drawing somewhere and believed the printing presses which duplicate them, all involved skillful drawing somewhere and believed the printing presses which duplicate them, all involved skillful drawing somewhere and believed the printing pressure that the prin volved skillful drawing somewhere and exist for his convenience and pleasure.

Drawing is a necessary factor in all productive industries. It is practically the universal language of industry.

If this were more generally understood to be the fact the teaching of drawing in the schools would have a stronger support on the part of the conservative and 'practical" men of the community.

The Whaling Industry. The trials and tribulations of the whaling industry defy the meager justice which the resources of a single paragraph affords. A volume might cover the subject. The difficulty about whaliug is the uncertainty of whales. These mainmals decline to be regulated by any signal service reporter and refuse in their migrations to respect precedent or the ambitions of the aretie oil works. The consequence is a skipper may cruise the northern latitudes, trying conclusions with icebergs and polar bears, endangering life and limb in a mangy old tub, encountering the perils of storm, wave and Eskimo, and all without sighting a spout or eapturing a yard of whalebone. I listened receutly to the mournful reminiscences of Captain Greeu, a hardy mariner of much experience, who after many years of laboring at the oil industry retired to a raisin rauch at Fresno. Owing to the decline of raisins, however, he took to the ocean again, enipped a vessel and sailed into the latitudes of winter. There he found an antique steam whaler, the Reiudeer, and for two long and weary years they have kept caeh other company in the close knit sisterhood of misfortune. Ouee during the second year they sighted a whale, and Captaiu Greeu encompassed its capture. A bowhead it was, and no great prize. Tiring of eold, salt and ill luck, the twain decided at last to go south for rest and provisions. They started together, when something broke on the Reindeer, and she was condemned to delay until the damage might be repaired. How the gallant skipper cursed the misfortune which detained him among the icebergs! How he railed at fate! Two days later a school of whales hove in sight. The eaptain and prew dashed upon them and in four hours had killed a dozen giants, which meant at ruling prices at least $60,000 worth of whalebones. However, it often happens in the arctie, as in the world, that the darkest moment of misfortime is the dusk that preceded the advent of prosperity. - San Francisco Wave.

Homing Pigeons.

When pigeous were to be sent back and forth, it has been usual to keep two sets, with their respective homes at either end of the eourse, and when they have reached their homes to carry them back to the places from which they are to be dispatched. An ingenious process has been devised to overcome this difficulty and cause the birds to fly with equal eertainty in both directions. Pigeons, for example, whose home is in Paris are conflued for several days at St. Denis and fed there at a stated hour every day with some favorite food which is not given them at their real home. They become in the course of time familiar with their new home and its ehoice dishes. When set at liberty, they start off at once for Paris without forgetting the good things they enjoyed at St. Denis. When they are to be sent back, they are made to fast a little while, and are then let loose at about feeding time at St. Denis. They go thither, and, when they have their own way, timo their going so as to be there at the exact moment of feeding. Birds have thus been taught to fly back and forth regularly between places 30 miles apart. -G. Renaud in Popular Science

There is a venerable and benevolent judge in Paris who at the moment of passing sentence on a prisoner consults his assessors on each side of him as to the proper penalty to be inflicted. "What onght we to give this raseal, brother?" he says, bending over to the ssessor on the right.

"I should say three years." "What is your opinion, brother?" to the assessor on the left.
